Subject: Microsoft settlement

I will be brief... At this time our country needs this strong company to be free from these sorts of litigation... they need to continue on creating and providing products that are easily accessed... as a senior citizen nothing has made my life more productive then the constant support from the folks at Microsoft. I understand that they are a stiff competitor lets just let them resolve this grievances .

To all the very difficult work you all are doing our hats are off.
sincerely, PHoebe Fensterman, Richmond, Va.
